

Code of conduct

Statement real estate acts with a high standard of integrity. Partners and employees are obligated to act with integrity, meaning the following behaviors or actions:

- Being trustworthy in all that you do
- Being open and transparent in the way you work. Sharing appropriate and necessary information with your clients and/or others to conduct business and doing so in a way so they can understand that information
- Respecting confidential information of your clients and potential clients. Don't divulge information to others unless it is appropriate to do so
- Not taking advantage of a client, a colleague, a third party or anyone to whom you owe a duty of care
- Not allowing bias, conflict of interest or the undue influence of others to override your professional or business judgements and obligations
- Making clear to all interested parties where a conflict of interest, or even a potential conflict of interest, arises between you or your employer and your client
- Not offering or accepting gifts, hospitality or services, which might suggest an improper obligation
- Acting consistently in the public interest when it comes to making decisions or providing advice
